

educating. collaborating. networking. strengthening our community's nonprofit organizations.

guilford nonprofit consortium

ask for what you need. give what you can.

“The Consortium plays a significant role in helping local nonprofits become more effective and efficient. We’re excited to see it become more involved in High Point. We encourage our nonprofit community to take full advantage of this resource.”

— *Paul Lessard, President
High Point Community Foundation*

The Guilford Nonprofit Consortium is a collaborative of nonprofit organizations, large and small, in Guilford County, North Carolina that fosters mutual assistance and support.

peer expertise. Members turn to the Consortium and to each other for educational programs, leadership training, technical support, volunteers, and networking.

great value. Organizations pay one low fee, then their entire staff and board members can attend events and use Consortium services.

“The Consortium has allowed me to make new contacts in the nonprofit community and community at large. I have learned a lot from others and I offer help as well. It has made my job easier and much more fun.”
— Wendy R. Rivers, Executive Director Big Brothers Big Sisters of High Point

other benefits of membership

- job postings
- wish lists
- Google group communications
- financial management help desk

Consortium programs

- Monthly topical roundtable discussions for nonprofit executive directors and financial staff
- “Best Practice Conversations” with guest speakers from various fields of expertise
- Half-day in-depth workshops on topics such as strategic alliances
- Annual celebration to recognize the contributions that nonprofits make to our community
- Nonprofit Management Institute, monthly classes on all aspects of managing an organization
- Executive Director Academy, nine months of one-on-one coaching and programs to build leadership capacity

“The Consortium helps organizations build infrastructure, strengthen financial literacy, and increase collaborative efforts. Several of our agencies have successfully secured grants for professional development that they learned about at general networking meetings.”
— Bobby Smith, CEO, United Way of Greater High Point

join us!

www.guilfordnonprofits.org

got questions?

Donna Newton, Director
dnewton@guilfordnonprofits.org
336.202.4309

Renee Matyok, Consortium Assistant rmatyok@guilfordnonprofits.org
336.706.5092
336.544.0565

